BOUTIQUE
COLLECTION

Times have changed and so have our homes and lifestyles.

Out have gone the formal three piece suites and in has come the need for more compact, flexible furniture. With kitchens becoming family rooms and dining rooms becoming sitting rooms, there is a growing desire for non-traditional styling and colours.

This is why we have created the Boutique collection. Designed with narrower arms and clean lines to maximise the use of space, the range is available in a wide range of co-ordinated fabrics with a huge choice of scatter cushions.

New shapes have been designed to suit the way we live today from chaise sofas for extra comfort to cuddler chairs, ideal for one person to relax in or for two people to sit playing computer games. Large banquettes provide extra seating and sofa beds will turn your room into an extra bedroom. Complementary occasional chairs are extremely attractive and very versatile.

So why settle for a suite when you can choose from the Boutique collection?

What's in a name...
